Mimi has taught her whole family great values, a great attitude, and always being positive to overcome any circumstance. She used to teach all her family members of a traditional bolivian card game! We all spent hours and had so much fun together.

Mimi loved her family very much, she was a very happy and outgoing person always laughing and sharing her great sense of humor. Very dedicated, taking care of everyone and cooking great meals for the whole family. She baked cakes, bread and pastries for most birthday parties. Mimi also loved flowers and plants. She was frequently watching various soap operas, shows “Nosotros los Guapos” and “Caso Cerrado” on her favorite channels, Univision, and Telemundo.

Mimi would love to go to different department stores like Home Goods, Walmart, and shopping malls in the area, out of all her favorite stores was Dollar Tree; she loved and enjoyed her coffee with spicy Mcchicken and a senior Coke, ice cream cone and apple pie. She also enjoyed eating Peruvian Roasted Chicken, Bolivian soups, cuñape with Starbucks Mocha Frappé, whenever Mimi would be visiting we must have french bread (chamillo, c’auca or sarnita), cheese (quesillo) and coffee, every day a chocolate was a must!

She also enjoyed her vacation long trips to Ohio, New York, New Jersey, West Virginia, California, Florida, Canada (Niagara Falls), Tennessee, and Pennsylvania in the company of the closest family members. Mimi was Catholic and would prefer to attend mass in the morning. She would say that “God should always be first in the morning....”. Mimi was a fan of all kinds of music, especially romantic, boleros, classic, pop and country music. She always wanted to play basketball and be part of a folk group, but was never able to. Mimi was a big supporter of football games, ballet recitals, band concerts, JROTC activities and parades. Always present while her daughter, grandkids and great grandkids perform dancing bolivian dances, She was a big fan of Michael Jackson, and among other things, will always be remembered for her famous and delicious Fricasé, Lechón, Falso Conejo, and Thimpu.
