

Yole Loretta Boyes

April 24, 1926 - November 9, 2019

Yole Loretta Boyes passed away peacefully on November 9th, 2019. During her 93 years of life she was a daughter, sister, wife and mother. Yole spent most of her life as the loving army wife to John, her husband of over 60 years. We know that Yole has found final peace with John in heaven.

During her life, Yole was so very generous with her talents and time. She loved to garden, craft and sew. She will be missed greatly. Many of her creations still grace the homes of close friends and family to this day. Her recipes will live on, as she was such a wonderful chef.

Yole is survived by her son, John William, daughter in law, Elizabeth and granddaughter Cassidy.

We will celebrate her life on January 13, 2020 with a mass at Holy Trinity Catholic Church at 10:30 am, and burial at Arlington National Cemetery at 2 pm. A reception will follow at Ft. Myer Officers Club.

For non-military planning on attending the reception, please visit: <https://pass.aie.army.mil/jbmhh> to pre-register for access to Ft. Myer base.
