“ I worked with Zach, and he was a great person . learned quickly, and was very smart when it came to technical things. He had a great way of connecting with people , be it coworkers or customers, he could always make a bond, .

“ From the moment I met Zach, I felt he was a special young man who had much to offer. He did not disappoint. After he was hired, his special qualities presented themselves in his kindness, conscientiousness, and strong work ethic. He was unfailingly pleasant with a ready smile and always expressed an eagerness to learn new skills. We all meet many people in our lives but there are only a few that make a lasting impact on those around them. Zach was one of those special few and we miss him terribly.

“ John, Jane, and Katie, words can't possibly express how sad and sorry we are that Zach has left us. You raised an amazingly beautiful son who was dear to so many people. So many memories of our little ones growing up together. We are always here for you along with the rest of the Crestbrook neighbors. Please let us know how we can help. Love to all of you ~ Kevin and Jodi

“ Our hearts are aching for all of you as you face the loss of your dear Zach. We have such fond memories of Zach playing with our Zach and the other boys in the neighborhood back in the Marshall ES days. It seems like yesterday. We are so sorry that you all are having to learn to live life without your dear son and brother. Hold onto the thought that one day we will all be reunited in Heaven. Until then, may God hold you all more tightly during these tragically dark days. With our love and prayers, The Laychak-Chareq Family

“ Zach was loved and respected by everyone here at Mason and will be missed very much. He always had a smile and would stop by daily for his piece of candy. His loss has really hit my heart and I hope that his family knows that he made an impact in my life and so many of the lives in the department. - KLA

“ Zach, was great co worker! He always had a smile and a kind word to share with others. Zach was funny and sweet. I will remember always having 2 sandwiches, 1 was usually PB and J and sometimes he would usually eat 1 of his sandwich at 10:30am. I will miss him!
