

Zeb Walker Goodwin

June 21, 1952 - December 1, 2014

Zeb Walker Goodwin III, 62, of Warrenton, VA met his Heavenly Father on Monday, December 1, 2014. He was born in Okinawa, Japan on June 21, 1952. He was the son of the late Zeb Walker Goodwin II and Norma Sullivan Goodwin Faulkner of Hampton, VA. In addition to his parents, Zeb is predeceased by his stepson, Ryan Kidd, who he loved as his own; and his niece, Kacie Goodwin.

Zeb worked as a sheet metal technician in his earlier years and then found his calling working with adults with special needs. He spent much of his recent years studying the Bible and sharing the love of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Zeb was a loving husband and father and he enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Playing the guitar and singing were some of his favorite pass times. He also enjoyed Civil War history and was a diehard Dallas Cowboys fan.

Left to cherish his memory is his loving wife of 21 years, Darlene Ait Goodwin. He is also survived by his sisters, Michele (Eddie) Long and Idelle Hamilton; and his brothers, Wendell (Sheri) Goodwin, Donald (Kathi) Goodwin and Treb Faulkner. He is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at Pierce Funeral Home 9609 Center Street

Manassas, VA on Tuesday, December 9, 2014 at 11:00 AM with the family receiving friends one hour prior to the service. Interment will follow at the Gainesville United Methodist Church Cemetery in Gainesville, VA.

“ I'm just discovering this news now in hoping to reconnect with Zeb and looking for him online. He was the kindest man I've ever known. Had a genuine sense of humor, was a top tier caregiver who made me a better caregiver. He challenged me to always do better. We had the best work lunches. I was just a kid about 23 years old and he introduced me to Roy Orbison - sorry I lost that CD, Zeb. I owe ya. We worked in a group home together for quite a few years and Zeb modeled kindness, respect, work ethic, and how to let the bad days roll off and focus on the good. I'm sorry I missed the chance to tell Zeb how much he impacted my life and career. The world was better because of him. I just hope he knew that.

“ Darlene, I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Zeb. Many years ago, our families lived next door to each other, in Hampton. My sisters and I have wonderful memories of growing up with Zeb and his siblings and Idelle and I communicate via email quite often. May you feel God's loving arms around you during this very difficult time. Brenda Edens Funderburk

“ We will miss our dear friend. He was a good friend to us, and we spent long hours together just enjoying good talks about so many subjects--but especially conversations about the Lord Jesus. Zeb is now in Heaven, experiencing all the wonders and joy he so looked forward to seeing! I look forward to the day when I will see him there, and we will rejoice together in God's presence.....
